

App. No. 10/710,961

REMARKS - General

The claims have been rewritten as a system claim which should address the Examiner's Section 102.

The claims have also been rewritten so that the invention is non-obvious in regards to the 103 rejection based on Boushy, et al., US Pat. 6,003,013. Material has been added to the base claims that are not disclosed in Friesen which Applicant contents makes the new claims novel and nonobvious to someone skilled in the arts.

The some of the new elements that have been added to the main independent claim includes the "monitoring gaming service provider hotel inventories, gaming space, and desired gamers,"

Also applicants have rewritten all claims to define the invention more particularly and distinctly so as to overcome the technical rejections and define the invention patentably over the prior art.

Conclusion

For all of the above reasons, applicant submits that the specification and claims are now in proper form, and that the claims all define patentably over prior art. Therefore the applicant submits that this application is now in condition for allowance, which action is respectfully solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
